

The Stranger

Name _____

Fill in each section after you discuss with your partner

Why did the man “look up with terror”? Why do you think he was he afraid?	Discuss. Ask your partner to elaborate on what he/she says.
Write your response and what you might have learned from your partner:

What does it mean when mercury is stuck at the bottom of a thermometer? What might this mean about the stranger's temperature? Do you think the thermometer is really broken? Why or why not?	Discuss. Ask your partner to elaborate on what he/she says.
Write your response and what you might have learned from your partner:

Why do you think the rabbits are so comfortable with him?	Discuss. Ask your partner to elaborate on what he/she says.
Write your response and what you might have learned from your partner:

What do we know about the season when we see geese flying south? Why is the stranger so fascinated by the geese he sees?	Discuss. Ask your partner to elaborate on what he/she says.
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------

Write your response and what you might have learned from your partner:

What is happening when the stranger blows on the leaf? Look closely at the picture. What changes about the leaf as he blows on it? Look closely at his face. What does his expression mean?	Discuss. Ask your partner to elaborate on what he/she says.
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------

Write your response and what you might have learned from your partner:

Who do you think the stranger is? What in the book makes you think that?	Discuss. Ask your partner to elaborate on what he/she says.
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------

Write your response and what you might have learned from your partner:

Bubble Map

Name _____ Date _____

Opinion:

Reason 1:

Reason 2:

Reason 3:

Evidence 1:

Evidence 1:

Evidence 1:

Evidence 2:

Evidence 2:

Evidence 2:

Opinion (restated):

Final Draft

Put all the parts together into one piece of writing. Revise and replace words and phrases to make your meaning more clear. Check that you have an effective introduction and conclusion.

Presentation (optional)

Stand and present your findings orally. Be prepared to defend your conclusion about the Stranger's identity.

Conversation Counter

Partner _____

Scorekeeper _____

Date _____

Place a tally mark next to each talk move your partner completes.

	Can you elaborate on...?
	In my opinion...
	What I mean is...
	For example, ...